

Shannon J. Reilly's Top Ten List Differences Between the 1998 and 2010 Cast Photos

Photo by Wallace Photography

1998

Laughter on the 23rd Floor
TCT Warehouse on the Levee Theatre

Photo by Marc Rapp

2010

Laughter on the 23rd Floor
TCT Sheffel Theatre

10). Hair

9) Ted Shonka's breath not nearly as "minty" as it was in 1998.

8) New wooden table gives that "I bet it's just gonna bust" feeling to the comedy.

7) Not so easy to spot Waldo in the new photo.

6) Marc Rapp obviously less committed to saving Walt Boyd as he was in saving Robb Baker.

5) The ladies traded colors in their outfits this time around just to keep it "fresh".

4) The creaking on set wasn't from the table it was from the actor's bones.

3) Carl Peckham is more "Shoemakery" than John Shoemaker was in 1998.

2) Maeghan Bishop doesn't have to do the director's laundry like Alex Reilly had to in 1998.

1) The photo from the 1998 cast wasn't a "Scratch and Sniff".

Don't miss Laughter on the 23rd Floor opening this Friday at Topeka Civic Theatre!

TopekaCivicTheatre.com